I LOVE the title of this one and it fits this story excellently! I loved and felt a kin to Charlotte as the story went on the future rancher he the future teacher. Engaging the Competition Historical fictionmanai last Together they are quite a pair and I truly enjoyed getting to know them! 103 What a unique and absolutely wonderful novella this was! The author did such a good job at creating two characters who have flaws but are utterly likable as well. Book Engaging the competition law Harrison and Charlotte (Charlie) have great chemistry a problematic history and I had to laugh at the fact that their first kiss wasn't all that great for them! I really enjoyed this story and loved watching these two characters grow so much from beginning to end. Book Engaging the competition definition I really enjoyed it! 103 What a fun and interesting premise! I loved how these two had misconceptions about each other and circumstances had to throw them together to make them act on their attraction and chemistry.
