I became bored.-Grief #1: The sister is a brat and self-centered. Jane Parker has just turned 39. That doesn't help her either. This story just didn't excite me.-I love the cameos from the past (music people events etc.). I'm a retired Canadian Internal Auditor. I also did some accounting. I loved my work. Altogether very amusing in a Bridget Jones-lite sort of way. As to enjoyment level personally I rate this a 5 . I loved it
